Creating Solutions to Protect Against Downside Risk; Adapting Strategies to Preserve Retirement Income in a Shifting Economy

Boston, MA (November 19, 2008) Adapting strategies to create new retirement income solutions for Americans during a critical and volatile time is the focus of the 5th Annual Conference on Managing Retirement Income (MRI). Produced by the Institute for International Research with exclusive endorsement from the Retirement Income Industry Association (RIIA), the event will take place February 9 through February 12, 2009 at the Marriott Long Wharf in Boston, MA.

“Today, it’s more vital than ever that the industry work across silos to develop innovative solutions to meet the retirement income challenges of today’s and tomorrow’s pre-retirees and retirees,” stated Francois Gadenne, Executive Director and Chairman of RIIA. “We must work to protect against downside risk and adapt strategies to preserve retirement income in a shifting, volatile economy. The MRI conference is the place where such strategies and solutions will be shared, discussed and debated.”

In addition to hearing remarks from Gadenne, many prestigious companies, educators, and researchers will share their ideas on how to succeed and thrive in the evolving retirement income business. These speakers include experts from Employee Benefits Research Institute, LPL Financial, Oppenheimer Funds, LIMRA International, Genworth, Deloitte Consulting, Fidelity, MassMutual, American Century Investments, DWS Investments, ING Wealth Management and many more.
