Boston, MA (June 11, 2007) The Retirement Income Industry Association (RIIA) is sponsoring a cocktail reception at Financial Research Corporation's (FRC's) 3rd Annual Retirement Forum on June 13, 2007 at the Four Seasons Hotel in Boston, MA.

"We are excited to sponsor this networking event at FRC's nearly sold-out forum for the retirement industry," said Francois Gadenne, Founding Chairman of RIIA and CEO of Retirement Engineering, Inc. "The forum attracts the senior executives from major financial services firms who are committed to leading innovation and change in the retirement income business. It will be a unique opportunity for these leaders to interact."

According to Elizabeth Wetherbee, vice president and director of marketing for FRC, in addition to the stellar line-up of experts on retirement product design and strategy, the pinnacle of the day-long program will be the Retirement Income Product and Service Innovation discussions leading off with FRC's latest research. "The discussions will be exciting as an interactive panel with diametrically opposed perspectives share their insights and opinions," she explained.
